

NEW CRANE CAB

Utilizing customers' feedback, the Weldco Hydra-Lift crane cab has been extensively redesigned for enhanced safety, visibility, function, comfort, and appearance.

NEW DESIGN FEATURES

- New form offering functional shape and appearance
- New design reduces weight by 675 lbs.
- Ergonomic cab designed to improve visibility and comfort
- More interior padding/upholstery
- Improved forward/upward visibility
- Removable emergency exit provided through rear window
- Improved handrail clearance and conformance to ISO standards
- Overall improved LED lighting
- Improved Load Moment Indicator system and radio mounts
- Document holder below seat

Continued on next page »

NEW DESIGN FEATURES

HEATING & A/C

- Integrated rear fuel tank for heater with side fill access
- Improved and directed HVAC flow
- Removable rear panel to accommodate optional A/C unit

WINDSHIELD & DOOR

- Curved glass window with improved forward and overhead visibility
- All glass sliding door allows easy cab access with weight reduced by 60 lbs
- Tinted glass to eliminate glare for operator
- Thermalform molded front dash with adjustable louvers to control air flow
- Washer fluid reservoir easily accessible and has level sight window
- Improved and stronger door latching pins

CONTROLS

- Fully adjustable high back seat and joystick pod mounts
- Proportional, electronically controlled joystick controls
- Electrical panel raised to easy service location with easy open door
- Joystick pods are fully adjustable and can flip upwards
- Electrical switches reconfigured in order to simplify wiring
- Canbus Plus 1 controller is improved with faster processor speeds

